I am sure you can think of lots more than me.

I went to the zoo and saw:

EQUIPMENT:

. people

METHOD:

. say the sentence; I went to the zoo and saw: then add an animal, so the sentence would say; I went to the zoo and saw an anteater

. the next person will say; I went to the zoo and saw an anteater and a baboon (for example)

. keep going until someone forgets to put in an animal.

Maybe instead of going to the zoo, you could go shopping and buy??

Eg. I went shopping and bought a coat.

The next person would add another item onto the list.
